3. DATA PROTECTION

- 3.1. All personal data provided by the buyer himself (name, surname, e-mail address, etc.) while preparing the order or creating an account in our E-shop is processed in accordance with EU General data protection regulation 2016/679, law on personal data protection of Republic of Lithuania, other applicable laws regulating personal data protection and our Privacy Policy available on our website.
- 3.2. The Buyer shall read and agree with our Privacy Policy before creating an account or making an order. Should the buyer have any questions or any part of the Privacy Policy would be unclear, Vouchfire shall provide the necessary clarifications. Vouchfire provides necessary clarifications within 14 (fourteen)calendar days.
- 3.3. The Buyer must immediately inform Vouchfire if, during order placement he/she provided inaccurate information about himself/herself, which would prevent Vouchfire from delivering the voucher(-s) or from proper execution of the order. If inaccurate personal data was provided during creation of an account (but before making an order), buyer can update such inaccurate data by himself/herself.
- 3.4. The buyer is responsible for providing correct personal information about himself/herself and for a prompt update of such information. If buyer provides Vouchfire with incorrect personal data (e. g. incorrect e-mail address), Vouchfire may not properly execute the agreement or deliver voucher(-s) to the wrong person. If Vouchfire executes the agreement improperly because buyer provided incorrect or inaccurate information about himself, the buyer is considered to be guilty of Vouchfire improper execution of the agreement.

4. CREATION OF AN ACCOUNT

- 4.1. Any user of the E-shop, including the buyer, will be able to create an account.
- 4.2. While purchasing voucher(-s) while logged in your account, buyer will not need to provide personal data for each separate purchase. During the account creation process, buyer will be asked to provide all the information necessary for making the order (name, surname, e-mail address, phone number, etc.) and will be saved for future purchases.
- 4.3. Buyer will be responsible for protection of login data (user ID / e-mail address, password) and for accuracy and necessary updates of provided information. Vouchfire will not be held responsible if purchases will be made from buyer's account by a third person, because buyer lost login data, provided login data for third parties or otherwise disclose login data for third parties.
- 4.4. Vouchfire recommends to use a complex password for an account (consist of a combination of uppercase and lowercase letters, numbers and special symbols, such as punctuation and is at least 12 (twelve) characters long). Vouchfire also recommends not to use password that has already been used for an account in other websites. Vouchfire will not be held responsible for any incidents that would be caused because buyer have not followed these recommendations.

Vouchfire will not be obliged to explain the reasons of such rejections to the buyer.

8. WITHDRAWAL FROM CONTRACT

- 8.1. Before purchasing voucher, buyer must assess necessary circumstances related to using voucher, including, but not limited to, location, business hours of partners, list of our partners and possible changes to that list (we may start co-operate with new partners and stop co-operation with old partners).
- 8.2. Buyer has the right to withdraw from the agreement within 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the date of purchase and recover paid price. Buyer will not be able to withdraw from the agreement if the voucher is already used.
- 8.3. In order to exercise his right to withdraw from the agreement, the buyer must send Vouchfire a free-form request stating that the buyer decided to withdraw from the agreement and purchase proving document (e. g. invoice). Upon receipt of such request Vouchfire immediately will send a confirmation notice of receipt of such request.
- 8.4. If buyer exercises his right to withdraw from the agreement, Vouchfire will mark in his systems his voucher as "unredeemable" and/or warn partners, so that the buyer would not be able to use such voucher.
- 8.5. If buyer exercises his right to withdraw from the agreement, buyer is refunded all money paid for the voucher(-s). Buyer should indicate bank account number in free-form request, to which he/she desires that money should be refunded.
- 8.6. Vouchfire is not responsible for the quality of goods or services that the buyer receives by using our vouchers at our partners. If buyer buys defective / poor quality goods by using our vouchers, he should apply to our partner who accepted our voucher and sold the goods in order to replace the defective / poor quality goods with the suitable quality goods. If buyer gets poor quality services by using our vouchers, he also should apply to our partner who accepted our voucher and provided poor quality services in order to eliminate deficiencies of provided services.

9. PRICE

- 9.1. Buyer himself/herself chooses the amount of money he/she wants to pay for a voucher. The price paid for the voucher will be equal to the value of the voucher (e. g. if buyer chooses to pay 100 Eur for a voucher, he will be able to buy goods/services for 100 Eur (including all applicable taxes) at our partners).
